

Guest Speaker: Compatriot Rick Reese

Topic: The Restoration of the Brockett Home

Rick will talk about the reconstruction of his patriots cabin in Tennessee. His patriot William Ebenezer Brockett's home was completely disassembled and moved & rebuilt in a new location. The finished rebuilt log cabin home is amazing and he has images to show you.

Rick's BIO: Rick Reese was born in Bethesda, MD and grew up in Baltimore, MD. After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, he received a BA degree in Business Administration and an MBA degree in Marketing from Loyola University in Baltimore. Rick joined the Marine Corps Reserves in 1970 and was honorably discharged as a sergeant in 1976. He worked for the United States Gypsum Company (USG Corp) for 31-1/2 years in various positions until his retirement in July of 2007. He was responsible for major projects with USG that included business project manager, sales force project manager, and manager for project implementation and training for about 70 manufacturing plant facilities.

Rick and his wife of 51 years, Linda Dillon Reese, moved to Atlanta from Chicago in 2008. Linda is a member of the Martha Stewart Bulloch chapter of the DAR. Their son, Rick Reese, is a musician, a member of the Piedmont Chapter, and also the editor of the "Piedmont Piper" the Chapter newsletter. Their daughter, Ashley Reese Carman, is a sales executive with Salesforce.com and lives in Sandy Springs with her husband.

Rick joined the Piedmont Chapter SAR in 2013, and is a Past Chapter President. Rick is also GASSAR Education Chairman. He has been involved with the Martha Stewart Bulloch DAR Society C.A.R. since 2012, and a senior leader of that organization for the past 7 years.
